

Authentic Experience

GRAN HOTEL MIRAMAR /
Malaga, Spain

Like a fantasy wedding cake on the seafront, this glorious hotel from 1926 has been renovated with no expense spared. With a vast ballroom and sweeping marble stairs, offers early 20th-century elegance plus all modern comforts thrown in. It's an oasis of calm, despite only being a short stroll from Malaga Old Town.

"We have created a network of artificial instincts we call CULTURE."

"The ideal commodity- the one which helps sell all the others. No wonder they want us all to go for it!"

"I must make sure I document this experience on Social media, otherwise I might as well not be here"...

"In our Spectacular Society where all you can see is things and their price, there's nothing they won't do to raise the standard of boredom."
