How might social media cyber-space inform a brief for physical space? What techniques would inform the subsequent language of architectural representation?

How is social media impacting our architectural perception?

If the consumer-users of social media are the architects of social media, what kind of synthetic space have they created for society?

WTF AM I ACTUALLY DOING?!
Where is this going?

